

SAM LANGFORD TO SCRAP BILL TATE AUGUST 4

Newman Announces Black Top Notchers for Next Boxing Card

Sam Langford, the Boston Tar who has been figuring in the heavyweight division for the past quarter-century, will meet Big Ed Tate, another dumpy scrapper of the past, at the convention hall Friday night, August 4. Lou Newman promoter announced last night.

Langford, who recently smothered the Bear Cat of Omaha, here put his name on the dotted line several days ago and agreed to meet either Bill Tate or Ted Jackson. Newman immediately set in touch with Tate and yesterday received a wire that Tate's engagement for August had been canceled and he would be in town next week to put the finishing blow on his bout in a local gym.

Tate, who ranks with Ted Jackson, Willie and Langford, in the darker side of the heavyweight ranks is no stranger to Tulsa. He has been here in the past.

The coming mauling match between the veteran boy from Boston and Tate, will not be the first meeting between these foes. Back in 1914 they fought 10 rounds in a no decision affair. Early in 1917 Langford knocked Tate for a string of empty pop bottles in five rounds. Later in this same year, he lost a 12-round decision scrap to Tate. When they came down to 1919 and Langford won a decision over Tate in 10 rounds. In this same year he gave Tate a trouncing in 5 rounds. Next they met in 1929 at Benton Harbor in a six-round, no decision battle. Press reports of the last battle declare that Tate was a new fighter and that the huskies traded blow for blow from the first tap of the bell until the curtain dropped at the end of six rounds.

Besides the 12-round decision scrap for the main event, Newman announced last night that he was lining up two 19-round preliminaries and a shorter session and possibly a battle royal.

SUES MAN FOR WOUND

Carl Latta Restrained From Visiting Home of Woman Who Alleges He Beat and Shot Her.
Carl C. Latta was made defendant in a suit filed in district court Thursday by Stella M. Whitte, who seeks damages totaling $2,000. The latter alleges that Latta appeared at her home, 612 South Yorktown, on June 18, and struck her over the head with a revolver and then shot her in the left arm above the wrist. It is for this wound that she seeks damages, because of the incurred hospital and physician bills. A temporary injunction enjoining Latta from again visiting the home of the plaintiff was granted by District Judge Redmond S. Cole. Miss Whitte alleges she has repeatedly asked protection from the police force of the city and has been informed by them that they can do nothing but fine Latta.

Illinois has a Gold Star Fathers' association.

GOVERNOR OF KANSAS TO PROSECUTE WHITE

They provided themselves with large window cards containing a declaration of sympathy for the strikers and a hope that they would win the strike. The committee called upon merchants in two or three shop towns and insisted upon the merchants placing these cards in their windows. The plan was for the purpose of creating an atmosphere of hostility toward those who were continuing to work.

The attorney-general ruled that this well-organized action on the part of the strikers and their sympathizing friends constituted a part of the conspiracy to deprive the public of transportation. This action constitutes a direct and public approval of an unlawful act and amounts to a conspiracy on the part of the storekeeper and the striking shopmen to deprive the public of transportation.

"William Allen White of Emporia, who has been one of the strike sympathizers from the beginning, is the first man to openly defy the law officers in this matter and to declare his intention to display the slogan of the strike leaders in his shop window and to continue this form of encouragement to the men who are now violating the law of the state. White is a man with a potential power in the state and his decision that he did not intend to obey this law has aroused a sympathetic response among other strike sympathizers. Cards that were taken down yesterday in obedience to the request of law officers are being put back today as the result of White's action, and a new spirit of hostility and determination has been aroused in the minds of the strikers who believe that in White they have secured a champion whose example will justify them in acts of disobedience to the law.

"It is now apparent that we are not going to be able to stop this practice in Kansas without arrests and prosecutions. No distinction will be made as to individuals no matter what their standing may be in the state or nation. Certainly we cannot make any exception of White's case.

"The case has nothing whatever to do with any man's right of free speech. It is a simple concrete question as to whether a citizen is going to obey the law of his state both as to spirit and its letter or be permitted to boastfully encourage others in the violation of the law at a moment when the situation is tense with danger to government."

A representative of the attorney-general's office is to leave for Emporia tomorrow morning with the information for prosecuting the warrant which will be issued on White sometime tomorrow. The break between Governor Allen and White has attracted nation-wide interest. They have been enemies in business, politics and in their social relations for a long time.

WHITE SAYS HE HAS NO PER CENT OF SYMPATHY
EMPORIA, Kan., July 20.—That no feeling of personal enmity or bitterness is connected with the present controversy was declared emphatically by William Allen White before he went to his home tonight.

"Whatever happens, my personal feeling for Governor Allen remains unchanged," White said. "We differ over the advisability of permitting free speech in the present industrial controversy. Free speech is never in question except when opinions clash. Then is the only time freedom is useful. The merchants of Kansas who sympathize with the strikers are putting in their windows cards reading:

"We are for the striking railway shopmen 100 per cent. We are for a living wage and fair living conditions."

"As a matter of fact, I am not for the striking railway men 100 per cent. They have a just cause, but have taken a foolish time for fighting for it. So I have put in my window a card from which I have erased '100 per cent' and put '50 per cent'."

Considerable rivalry was manifested between Oklahoma and Texas delegations over the southern routing of the highway.
